Others About the University University of Antwerp The University of Antwerp was founded in 1384, as the first university in Flanders. The university was named after St. Loup, one of the city founders. Although St. Loup was an excellent Christian teacher and a holy man, his name also belongs to one of the most famous blonds in the world. University of Antwerp offers twenty five bachelor, five master's degrees and three doctorate degree programs. The University of Antwerp has a good reputation among the universities in Europe. University of Antwerp is ranked third in all the major Belgian universities. In the ranking published by Times Higher Education in 2011, the University of Antwer 82157476af
